v.)	AND FOR PRELIMINARY HEARING
MICHAEL MARTIN, et al.,)	Date: October 26, 2007

Defendants.)
)	Before the Honorable Wayne D. Brazil

This matter is set to come before the Court for Preliminary Hearing or Arraignment on October 26, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. The United States has provided approximately 1400 pages of discovery to defendants' counsel and will be providing additional discovery shortly, including video tapes, photographs, statements, and additional documents. The parties had originally agreed to waive nine days, such that the preliminary hearing could be held on October 26, 2007, which would allow counsel to review the discovery before further charging decisions were made. In light of the amount of the discovery provided, the discovery that is forthcoming, and allowing counsel for the defendants to review the material to determine the possibility of a pre-Indictment resolution, all of the defendants have agreed to waive the necessary additional time under Fed. R.

1 Crim. P. 5 and the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, such that the preliminary hearing date be 2 extended to December 14, 2007 at 10 a.m. None of the defendants are in custody and this is the 3 second stipulation by the parties.

4 As indicated by the defendants' signatures, they have consulted with their attorneys and 5 understand that they have the right to a preliminary hearing or that further charging documents be 6 presented and filed with the Court on the day of or before his preliminary hearing. Pursuant to 7 Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1(d), the defendants knowingly and voluntarily waive their rights to a 8 preliminary hearing on October 26, 2007 and agree to extend the time for a preliminary hearing 9 until December 14, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. The parties also agree that there is good cause present to 10 grant the extension in light of the discovery provided and additional discovery to be provided, 11 and for the defendants' counsel to effectively prepare.

12 The parties also jointly request that the time between October 26, 2007 and December 13 14, 2007 be excluded under the Speedy Trial Clock to allow defendants' counsel to review the 14 discovery to be provided and effectively prepare taking into account the exercise of due 15 diligence. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(8)(A) and 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv). The parties agree that the 16 "ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best
